

Auburn-Washburn Visiting Author Barnes & Noble Book Fair

Dear Auburn-Washburn Parents & Patrons,

Every other year the Auburn-Washburn Librarians host an author or illustrator visit for our students. Parent organizations in individual buildings pay for the author's daily presentation fee. Librarians raise money to pay for other author expenses (ex. airfare).

To raise money for these author expenses, the librarians are hosting a Barnes & Noble Book Fair on Saturday, December 1, from 9am-7pm. We hope you'll support this activity by shopping at Barnes & Noble that day and telling the cashier that your purchases are going toward the Auburn-Washburn Visiting Author Book Fair. A percentage of the day's sales will go toward the author fund. In the past, a voucher was needed to give us credit. However, the voucher is no longer necessary.

You are encouraged to share this flyer with family, neighbors, and co-workers. The greater amount of our total sales, the higher percentage we receive.

Additionally, if your purchases include gifts, we will offer a gift wrapping service for a free will donation, the proceeds also going toward the author fund. Librarians will be available throughout the day if you are interested in suggestions for recommended reads for your student(s).

We appreciate your support! If you have questions, please contact your school's librarian.

Entertainment will occur throughout the day as follows:

- 10:00-11:30 Lisa Harkrader, author of Airball: My Life in Briefs book signing
- 10:00-11:30 Beverley Buller, author of From Emporia: The Story of William Allen White book signing (see back of this flyer for details on both authors & books)
